

Faculty Positions at CSPP, San Diego

Core Faculty member, Ph.D. Program in Clinical Psychology, California School of Professional Psychology, Alliant International University, San Diego: The Ph.D. faculty invite applications for two anticipated full-time, academic year faculty appointments. Specialization in health or child/family psychology preferred, but all applicants whose interests intersect with areas of current faculty strengths (e.g., multicultural, forensics, family/child, assessment and intervention) will be considered. Rank open. Qualifications: Completion of Ph.D and clinical internship at APA accredited programs; license-eligibility in California. The successful applicant will have demonstrated teaching excellence, understanding of diversity-related issues, clinical expertise, and a commitment to productive scholarship. The Ph.D. program offers scholar-practitioner clinical training and is housed within Alliant International University, which endorses professional practice, competency based training models. Women, people of color, people with disabilities and people from other underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply, as we actively seek to increase diversity at all levels.

Please submit your curriculum vitae, a cover letter outlining qualifications and interest areas, representative reprints and three letters of recommendation to: Richard Gevirtz, PhD, Faculty Search Committee Chairperson, at rgevirtz@alliant.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the positions are filled.

Alliant International University is an Equal Opportunity Employer, committed to ensuring a high quality of education through the diversity of the University community and the curriculum. Candidates who can contribute to that goal are encouraged to apply and to identify their strengths in this area.

The CALIFORNIA SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY (CSPP) at Alliant International University offers APA-accredited doctoral programs (PsyD and PhD) in Clinical Psychology at five campuses in California, COAMFTE-accredited master's and doctoral programs in Marital and Family Therapy at four campuses in California, a national postdoctoral master's program in psychopharmacology, and international programs in Hong Kong, Japan and Mexico.

CSPP's mission is to provide the highest quality education, training, research and service in professional psychology and related human service fields. We strive to improve the quality of life by fostering respect for human diversity in a multicultural and international society and by combating discrimination in all its forms. We seek to redefine excellence in scholarship via models of applied clinical research that provide a solid framework to understand and address problems of contemporary life.
