CAPIC Sponsorship Funds for Interns

To attend the 2015 CPA Convention on April 23- 26, 2015

At the Paradise Point Hotel and Spa in San Diego

CAPIC is again sponsoring students to attend the CPA Convention!

In an effort to promote student participation, advocacy, and leadership in the psychology profession, CAPIC is offering sponsorships to six CPAGS members (who also attend CAPIC internships and are in financial need) to help them to attend this year's CPA Convention.

CAPIC will provide $500* sponsorships to six interns, three from NoCA and three from SoCA.

- These students must be currently attending CAPIC doctoral academic programs.
- These students must be currently serving at CAPIC internships.
- These students must be (or become) CPAGS members.
- These students must demonstrate financial need.

These CAPIC sponsorship funds will cover the cost of the hotel (approx. $200), with the remainder (approx. $300) distributed directly to the awardee to assist with other Convention-related expenses (e.g. travel, registration, dining, etc.). * Awardees from NoCA internships will be allocated an additional $100 to help cover higher travel expenses.

- CAPIC will book rooms on behalf of the awardees (with 2 students/room) at the Convention hotel for two nights (Friday and Saturday, April 24th and 25th).
- Awardees will need to register themselves and make their own travel arrangements for attending the Convention.
- Awardees may also need to arrange some time-off from their current internship obligations in order to attend the Convention.

To apply for a $500 sponsorship, interns must complete an online application:

The deadline for submitting applications is midnight on April 4th.

Sponsored students/awardees will then be announced on April 7th.
