CAPIC Announces Distinguished Service Awards

April 11, 2016 at JFKU in Pleasant Hill, CA

In the spirit of promoting excellence in doctoral-level psychology training and service, CAPIC is proud to announce its Distinguished Service Awards to the following four honorees:

Northern California

Andrea Morrison, PhD: Current and long-standing CAPIC Board member, Associate Dean of the College of Psychology and Behavioral Sciences at Argosy University, past President of the National Council of Schools and Programs of Professional Psychology.

Vicci Tibbetts, MS: Training Director at Girls Incorporated of Alameda County-Pathways Counseling Center, one of CAPIC's founding internship programs, and an active member of the Greater Bay Area Mental Health and Education Workforce Collaborative.

Southern California

Tara Pir, PhD: CEO and Training Director for Institute for Multicultural Counseling and Education Services (IMCES), which has been a CAPIC program member since 2008 and is also an APA-accredited internship program.

Melodie Schaefer, PsyD: Current CAPIC Board Vice-Chair, and long-standing board member, CPA 2016 Convention Chair, CPA Div II Secretary/Treasurer, CAPIC liaison to the California Board of Psychology (BoP), and OSHPD Workforce Education and Training Committee member.

These individuals are being recognized for their significant contributions to the mission of CAPIC over the years and continuing through to today. While innumerable individuals, agencies, and institutions have made significant contributions to CAPIC over the years, these individuals have shown a particular passion, tenacity and a commitment to CAPIC, for which we are so very grateful.

We will presenting an award to each of these honorees at our 25th Anniversary Celebratory Luncheon at the CPA Convention in Irvine at 12 Noon on Saturday, April 16th. Join us as we celebrate our past, present and future! The luncheon is free to all CPA Convention attendees, and to CAPIC program members, as well! Visit the CAPIC 25th Anniversary Luncheon event page on our website for more details.

Please visit the CPA website for more info and to register for the 2016 CPA Convention.
